Approval of Minutes

Minutes from the January MNBB meeting were approved.

Director's Comments

Larry Rathbun

- The eighth graders who came to participate in pep band and the pizza party had a good time. Thanks to Maggie Hock and all of the other volunteers who made it happen.
- EBO is this Saturday (2/18). Performance time schedules were passed out. There is a 5pm awards ceremony, but some awards may possibly be presented mid-day.
- Silver Pep Band Members will perform on 2/18. This is the final scheduled performance, but Pep Band will play at Boys/Girls Basketball Districts.
- UNO Great Plains Jazz Festival is 2/24. Busses will be provided for transport.
- Orlando Update: Mandatory Trip Meeting is on Monday, 2/27. Mrs. Keiser has the flight times, but these are subject to change by the airlines.
- Mr. Rathbun discussed his retirement at the end of the school year. He said that there appear to be some very good candidates interested in taking over his position.

Old Business

New Business

- Matt Sheppard stated that the Directors and Officers Insurance Policy renewal is due. It is approximately $600. He will be discussing this with school administrators in terms of necessary coverage and he plans to compare policies with different carriers to attain the best deal.
- Matt and Barb Sheppard expressed their appreciation for the flowers sent by the Band Boosters upon the death of Barb's father.
- Matt and Barb are considering serving another year as Band Booster presidents. Discussion ensued about the benefits of providing continuity especially in light of Mr. Rathbun's impending retirement.
- A new treasurer and president elect will be needed for next year's band booster board.
