 - For every mattress purchased; for each student name mentioned, the student gets a $25 gift card
 - Band Families need to promote to one family outside of the band at minimum.
 - Will be a QR code to send out
 - 50 mattresses will equal $11,000, our goal for this sale.
 - On the flyers, every mattress purchased - a free sheet set will be given.
 - Maureen Kitchen is heading up CHI concessions; one or more concession stands with 7 people in one stand. People must be 19 years old to work. Guaranteed $700 and tips.
 - Storm Chasers concessions will happen again this summer

- Plant Sale - modest sales so far, may make a change to annuals. Thanks Traci and Heidi for their work on marketing.
- Torri Merten has a company for wreath sales this winter if we are interested.
- Pit/Truck
 - Pat is leaving on Tuesday for Orlando
 - Uniform packing went extremely well on Monday morning. Thank you, Wendy Lund.
- Scholarships - Anna Clausen
 - Scholarships have been selected and will be awarded at the Music Award Nights
- Spirit Committee
 - Senior Recognition at parent night; parents will stand to be recognized as well.
- Budget
 - The boosters voted for Josh Kitchen to become Treasurer.
 - Mihaela did an overview of next year's budget with all expenses and incoming funds.

Officer's Report (6:30 pm)

- Mihaela will give a quick overview of the budget.
- Fundraising reports will be given.
- Take vote for Josh Kitchen to be Booster Treasurer

Directors' Report

- Winterguard, though a young group, is doing great things and they've come a long way.
 - HWAA Championships April 2
 - World Guard International - following week.
- Guard is part of the band. Winds, percussion, and guard make up the three sections of the band.
- District music contest coming up at the end of April. Specifics will come out soon
- Leadership Team applications coming out soon
- Drum Major Auditions at the end of April

- Thank you so much, Wendy Lund, for all of your work with organizing for the Orlando trip. Thanks also, Pat Potter, for all of your work for the truck for the trip.
- Fall marching show draft should be ready by spring break or shortly thereafter.

New Business

- Middle School Solo and Ensemble Contest on April 30 - Tina Peterkin spearheading this event.
- Vote for Josh Kitchen as new Treasurer - all members voted aye, no members voted nay. Josh Kitchen is the new Treasurer for the Millard North Band Boosters.

Next Meetings:

- April 25
- May 3

Respectfully Submitted,
